Dear Parents

Here we are at the end of another week – each one seems to fly by so quickly, it seems like only a day or so ago that I was writing the last newsletter. Since then I have been pleased to notice that children are coming to school well prepared for the day: they all have their coats with them; the cloakrooms are MUCH clearer now that there isn't so much in the children's bags and there is more space for them to keep things organised; they are coming in to school in sensibly and starting off the day well. Thank you all for your support in creating an atmosphere that is conducive to enjoyment and achievement.

PUPIL OF THE WEEK

As you know, our Pupil of the Week cup is presented during the Friday assembly. There has been a slight change in routine in that children are allowed to keep the cup for a whole week now, but it does mean that they MUST bring it back the following Friday so that it can be presented to the next recipient during the assembly which is first thing in the morning. Over the last few weeks I have not had the cup to present, which is disappointing for the next child. If your child receives the cup, please could I ask them to bring it back on the following Friday so that they can bring it to the assembly and they themselves present it to their classmate. Thank you.

MESSAGE FROM MRS QUICK...

Does anyone know how to fold origami birds?

She would like six birds made from pieces of paper that the children have written letters on...

If you would be able to fold these letters for her, she would be most grateful – please pop in and see her sometime (she works Tuesday-Thursday)

MISSING KEYRINGS

We have a child in Otter class who has had some keyrings go missing from her school bag – they were attached to the outside of the bag and have been there since Reception class. Unfortunately, one of them has significant sentimental value and the child is very upset. This particular keyring is of two dolphins encrusted with sparkly gems. If anybody has seen this keyring or knows of its whereabouts, please could it be returned to Miss Smith.

CHRISTMAS

I cannot believe that it is time to start talking Christmas - Mrs Burleigh has made an excellent start on learning the Christmas carols for this year's performance, we will keep you informed of the progress towards the concert which will be in the last week of term. Christmas dinner will be on the last day, as usual, and we will get the Christmas post box out on Monday 3rd December for the children to post cards to their friends – please make sure the recipient's name is written clearly, and which class they are in so that the 'sorters' can deliver them efficiently.
