Dear Parents

Apologies for not getting the newsletter out on Friday but I had meetings back to back for much of the week, and with parents' evenings as well, it was a very busy week.

Thanks to all for the three highly successful parents' evenings – it really is a pleasure to be able to discuss the fantastic progress that your children are making and to share the plans we have to ensure that the rapid progress continues through the year. I am aware that there were some appointments that overran – we will endeavour to be more efficient next time.

MORNING ROUTINE

Many thanks to all for your support with the morning routine – this has been excellent. The children are developing their independence by organising their belongings themselves and I am satisfied that the arrangements fulfil our high standards of safety - children are adequately supervised at all times.

REMEMBRANCE

Remembrance Day is this coming Sunday and I have once again received a box of poppy related merchandise which will be on sale from Tuesday at lunchtimes and after school. I showed the children this box this morning and the children were very sensible - they decided that the bracelets and poppies are appropriate to be worn in school this week but the 'slap bands' were more of a toy and should be taken home. If you are sending money in for the poppy appeal, please could you discuss this with your child – we did have some children spending their poppy money on the tuck trolley one year!

MEAL TIME ASSISTANT

We are still looking to employ another Meal Time Assistant – please pass the word around – I would like to fill this position as soon as possible.

Job term: Permanent
 Grade: Grade A (£8.50 p/hr)
 Hours: 6 ¼ hrs / week (term time only)
 Start date: As soon as possible

NON UNIFORM DAY – CHRISTMAS HAMPERS DONATIONS – FRIDAY 23RD NOVEMBER

We have traditionally asked parents to donate items for these hampers, the hampers are then made up by PTFA members. The PTFA organise a list of items they require for the hampers and will soon be putting a list on each class door for parents to write their name against the item they will donate.

PTFA

Next meeting Tuesday 6th November at 3.35pm Yarty Class.
