Dear Parents

Well we have survived the first half term of the year. It has been tough adapting to all the new guidelines but I can really put my hand on my heart and say that we have all been real troopers this past seven weeks, again proving what a great team we have here at Kilmington!

We are certainly ready for half term, and just to confirm that half term is ONE WEEK. There have been mutterings about an extended half term but as always, we have been kept in the dark and at the moment we will be expecting to see the children back in school on Monday 2nd November.

MISS SMITH

This half term we will be saying farewell to “Miss Smith” who is getting married during half term, and we will be welcoming her back as “Mrs Shaw”. We all wish her happiness on her special day.

PTFA NEWS

The PTFA have had their AGM which was a great success. They have elected their new committee and made some fundraising plans.

A few things that they have planned are happening around now. Firstly, the bags2school bags have been sent home for you to fill, these will be collected on 16th November. A good opportunity to have a clear out over half term – I know I will be!

Secondly, the children are bringing home a letter (copy attached) and order form with their own festive designs on. You are able to order a range of personalised cards, mugs, teddies and other items, with your child’s design printed on them. These would make great presents. The PTFA will be collecting orders and payments after school on Monday 2nd and Tuesday 3rd November from the car park (more details on the letter).

And thirdly, children have had a pumpkin colouring competition sheet to take home – a £1 entry fee puts them into a class competition which will be judged after half term.

We all hope that you and your families have a wonderful half term and a much needed rest.

This week your child brought home a bag 2 school collection bag.

Bag 2 School is a company that specialises in good quality second hand clothing that can be re-used and they have arranged to make a collection from us to help raise vital funds for the PTFA. All bags are weighed and they pay us by the total weight collected. The more we collect, the more they pay!!

Please fill the bag (and/or a black bin liner) with any good condition items and return to The Beacon on Monday 16th November by 9am.

As always, thank you for supporting the PTFA.
